

The one and only
gift registry checklist
you'll ever need.

Crate&Barrel Gift Registry

How to start life together with your one and only?

With a scanner in one hand. And our expert Crate and Barrel checklist in the other. Dinnerware is a smart place to begin. It helps narrow down drinkware and flatware choices. Cookware only seems intimidating. We can quickly match the way you cook with the right materials.

And don't worry about crossing an empty threshold. The advantage of a Crate and Barrel gift registry is that you can not only set the table, stock the kitchen, pamper the bath and make the bed, you can even register for the bed...or dining room table, or sofa or media center, all from our exclusive furniture collection.

Enjoy this special time with your one and only. Plan your new home, envision your new life, and scan to your heart's content (a bigger list is more fun for your guests). And don't forget this is just the beginning. Update and add more gifts to your registry often, because the other great thing about Crate and Barrel is we're always getting in new and fun seasonal things between the time you first register and your big day.
